

CORIOLISS

C1

With a simple and efficient design, the C1 iron is very easy to use and achieves spectacular results. Thanks to the variety of prints on this model, there's sure to be one that perfectly suits your personality.

Why is it different?

Because its shape adapts to any type of work and you can choose the working temperature thanks to its integrated control that goes from 120° to 235°.

What can I use it for?

The glossy inner finish is ideal for creating waves and curls in all versions, while the material of the outer casing gives you total control over your hair.
