

CORIOLISS

C3

Think quality, sophistication, guarantee ... and the best hairdressing result: you have it in mind, it's the C3. Stylists acclaim it and those who use it at home confirm it: its simplicity of use, its design and its results give you total control for perfect hair.

Why is it different?

Because it has an integrated digital temperature control that allows you to adapt the heat to your hair. You'll love its ergonomic design, making it easy to use. It has temperature control with 4 heat stages 135°-180°-210°-235°.

What can I use it for?

For everything! Straighten, wave, curl ... whatever you can think of, because it is designed to be a creative tool idea for experimenting. In addition, the maximum temperature is 235, so it allows you to perform any treatment in the salon.
